ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT STAFF

JOHN J. CONBOY

Athletic Director

John J. (Jack) Conboy was named La Salle athletic director on January 3, 1969, succeeding James J. Henry, who retired January 1 after 35 years as Explorer A.D.

Conboy, 48, graduated from La Salle in 1950. He recently retired from the U.S. Army with the rank of lieutenant colonel after 20 years service. A veteran of three wars (WW II, Korea and Vietnam), Conboy served on the ROTC staff at La Salle from 1960-64.

Conboy was a member of St. Joseph's Prep's last city championship football team in 1939. After three years of World War II service in Europe, Conboy enrolled at Georgetown where he played football for two years before transferring to La Salle.

He was assistant football coach at St. Joseph's Prep from 1948 to 1950. He also coached Army football and basketball teams in Europe and Hawaii and organized a triathlon team at La Salle which produced three former members of the U.S. Army modern pentathlon team—Don Walheim, Bill Conroy and Gary McNulty.

Conboy, who holds an M.B.A. degree in Industrial Management from Temple University, resides in Drexel Hill, Pa. with his wife, Anne, and four children.

JOSEPH F. O'DONNELL

Assistant Athletic Director

Joseph F. O'Donnell was appointed assistant A.D. and coordinator of Hayman Hall, the college's $4.0 million physical recreation center in March of 1972.

A 1965 graduate of La Salle with a B.A. in economics, O'Donnell had taught social studies at Father Judge, his high school alma mater, from 1965-70. During the latter period, O'Donnell coached the school's soccer squad and was credited with developing 28 All-Catholic players, four of whom achieved All-Scholastic honors, and one All-American status.

In 1970-71 O'Donnell moved to a full-time position with the City of Philadelphia as recreation leader at the Jardel Center. He was a member of the Department of Recreation Soccer Committee, and also assisted Bill Wilkinson with the 1970 Explorer soccer team which posted the first winning season in the college's history.

O'Donnell, 29, and his wife, Marie, reside in northeast Philadelphia.

MEET THE EXPLORER COACHING STAFF

PAUL W. WESTHEAD

Head Basketball Coach

La Salle College basketball coach Paul Westhead, 34, has rapidly established himself as one of the better young strategists in the game.

Westhead lists a five year career coaching mark of 59-46, highlighted by his 1970-71 five capturing 20 of 27 contests, upsetting NCAA semi-finalists Western Kentucky and Villanova, and participating in the NIT.

Last year, Westhead guided his young squad to a 18-10 record, which included triumphs over Princeton, Stanford, Western Kentucky, Niagara, Temple, Villanova & Rutgers.

Westhead began his career at Cheltenham high in 1964, gradually building a winning tradition, which culminated in the suburban Philadelphia school's first appearance ever in the P.I.A.A. state finals in 1968.

From 1968 to 1970, Westhead served as assistant athletic director at St. Joseph's College, and coached the 1969-70 Hawk freshmen to an unparalleled 21-2 season.

The Explorer coach added some additional credits during the summer of 1972 when he coached the Santurce team of the Puerto Rican 'Superior' league to a first place regular season finish. In the following summer, Westhead visited Bahia, Brazil to stage a court clinic as part of the state department's 'Partners of the Americas' exchange program.

A 1961 graduate of St. Joseph's College, Westhead received a master's degree from Villanova University in 1963, and had done some Ph.D. work at Temple University. He has also served on the English department faculties at Cheltenham high, St. Joseph's College, and La Salle College.

JOSEPH C. O'CONNOR

Assistant Coach

Joseph C. O'Connor, personable Explorer assistant coach, is primarily involved with scouting opponents and recruiting the stars of tomorrow.

As coach of the La Salle frosh from 1970 to 1972, Joe's squads compiled a 34-11 mark, highlighted by his '71-72 yearlings winning 20 of 23 contests.

The 32 year-old mentor with the knowledgeable basketball mind, is no stranger to this kind of success. As coach of South Jersey's Bishop Eustace Prep from 1966-70, O'Connor's amazing coaching log read 78-17, including the New Jersey State Championship in 1969.

O'Connor, a 1963 graduate of St. Joseph's College with a bachelor's degree in history, resides with his wife, Kathy, in Westbrook Park, Pa.

THE ATHLETE

The young man who accepts the exciting challenge of representing La Salle College on basketball courts throughout the nation will be one who recognizes that he is supplementing his classroom participation with athletic participation.

He will learn to discipline himself toward achieving a goal, to work in close association with other men, and to acquire judgment and responsibility. As such a student athlete, he will be, above all, a gentleman.

PAUL GALLAGHER

Assistant Coach

Paul Gallagher, a former Explorer varsity basketball player and later head coach at Drexel Hill, Pa.'s Monsignor Bonner High, returns for his fifth campaign as an assistant to coach Paul Westhead.

The 1964 graduate of La Salle served as an assistant coach at Bonner before becoming head coach at St. James High in Chester, Pa. in 1966-67. Gallagher returned to Bonner the following year, and went on to compile a brilliant 57-19 career coaching mark. His 1969-70 quintet finished with a fine 24-6 log, won Philadelphia's Catholic League Southern Division title and capped the season with the Alhambra Catholic Invitational trophy at Cumberland, Md.

Gallagher, 31, who captained Bonner's 1960 City Championship five, resides with his wife, Sue, and four children in Havertown, Pa.

DAVID A. (LEFTY) ERVIN

Assistant Coach

David "Lefty" Ervin is in his seventh season as an assistant basketball coach, and also distinguishes himself as an assistant baseball boss at La Salle.

While a student at the college, Lefty was a two-sport standout and co-captain of the Explorer baseball and basketball teams in his senior year. In 1968 he was honored with the Joseph Schmitz Jr. Award as the senior who best exemplified the high traditions of La Salle College in loyalty, sportsmanship and courage.

A starter on the basketball varsity as a sophomore, Ervin spent most of the next two years as the Explorers' sixth man and gained a reputation as one of the outstanding substitutes in the nation. He scored a total of 756 points for his career.

Lefty played baseball and basketball at Abington High before graduating in 1963.

Ervin, 28, his wife, Karen, and son, Joshua, reside in Cinnaminson, N.J.

EXPLORER 1974-75 PROSPECTS—

THE COACH'S VIEW

"... our expectations are success orientated."

—Paul Westhead

With four starters returning including 6-5 senior All American candidate Bill Taylor and 6-10 junior Joe Bryant, we're quite optimistic about the 1974-75 season.

Taylor, the Big Five's scoring leader a year ago (19.7 ppg.), and Bryant, who made such a brilliant debut last season (18.7 ppg.-10.8 rpg.), give us the nucleus for an explosive attack.

In addition, our veteran junior guards, 6-0 Charlie Wise (11.9 ppg.) and 6-2 Glenn Collier (7.3 ppg.), offer experienced floor generalship.

One question mark to be solved is the replacement for graduated forward Joe DiCocco, whose all-around play in '73-74 gave us 10.5 ppg. and 9.4 rpg.

Veterans 6-8 junior Varick Cutler and 6-10 sophomore Donn Wilber are the leading candidates to fill that frontcourt vacancy.

We'll also be giving close scrutiny to frosh newcomers 6-6 Jim Wolkiewicz and 6-5 Gregg Metzinger.

In the backcourt, we lost some solid reserve personnel in Frank Moffatt and Steve Baruffi via graduation, but 6-0 soph Barry Brodzinski and 6-0 freshman Daryle Charles should give us the quality depth we require.

As in the past, we'll stress sound man-to-man defense and exert full court pressure quite frequently.

Our schedule is one of the most formidable ever at La Salle. We face tough road games at Notre Dame, Memphis State, Syracuse and Niagara, in addition to confronting major court powers Alabama, Furman and Houston in the Sugar Bowl Classic at New Orleans. The home card includes battles with Western Kentucky, Duquesne and Rutgers as well as Big Five foes.

Overall, we view 1974-75 as an exciting challenge, and our expectations are success orientated.

Meet The Explorers

Edward W. (Bill) Taylor
Senior 21 6-5 190 Forward
Tuskegee, Alabama

The Explorers' inconspicuous scoring machine is destined to become one of La Salle's top all-time point producers. A pre-season All American selection, Bill enters the 1974-75 campaign with 995 career points for an 18.7 ppg. two-year average. He's hit the double figure scoring column in 51 of 53 games, notching over 20 points on 20 different occasions.

Last season, the versatile sharpshooter tallied 551 points, leading all Big Five and MAC scorers with 19.7 ppg. Despite launching most of his shots from long range, Bill managed a fine 48.2% (242-502) from the floor. He highlighted the year with a career-high 39 point explosion vs. American U. canning 18 of 22 field goal attempts in one of the outstanding performances in the East in '74-75.

The poised forward had other superb endeavors as well, getting 28 points and 10 rebounds vs. St. Joseph's, 25 points and 12 rebounds (career-high) vs. Notre Dame, and 27 points and 9 rebounds vs. Wake Forest.

In his first varsity season as a soph, Bill registered 17.7 ppg. (444 points), only the fifth Explorer rookie in history to exceed 400 points.

He played his scholastic basketball at St. Francis Prep in Spring Grove, Pa. (coach Joe McGlynn) earning MVP honors in the Central Pennsylvania League as a senior.

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1972-73	25	204	36	154	444
1973-74	28	242	67	197	551

*Joseph W. Bryant

Junior 20 6-10 200 Forward/Center
Philadelphia, Pa.

Joe unveiled a spectacular portfolio of offensive moves in his debut last year, racking up 486 points for an 18.7 ppg. average which was second only to teammate Bill Taylor in the MAC and Big Five. The only former La Salle player who produced more points in his rookie season was the legendary Tom Gola (504, 1951-52).

A mobile tower of talent, Joe also grabbed 282 rebounds in '73-74 to lead the Big Five and finish second in the MAC with 10.8 rpg.

'JB' was over 20 points in nine games with career highs of 37 points vs. Rider and 17 rebounds vs. Delaware, both in the conference playoffs. His other top efforts were 26 points and 13 rebounds vs. Niagara, 26 points and 10 rebounds vs. Canisius, and 22 points and 16 rebounds vs. Temple.

A high school All American, Joe was the most sought after big man in greater Philadelphia while at John Bartram high (coach Jack Farrell).

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1973-74	26	200	86	282	486

Barry D. Brodzinski

Sophomore 19 6-0 170 Guard
Philadelphia, Pa.

Barry appeared in only 11 varsity contests during 1973-74, scoring eight points and grabbing eight rebounds for the season. However, the promising guard picked up experience on the Explorer sub-varsity, averaging 18.6 ppg. and feeding a team-high 34 assists. His steady ball handling and superb long-range shooting capability could make him a key backcourt figure in this year's La Salle plans.

Barry was a former All City performer at Philadelphia's North Catholic high (coach Tony Costantino) closing out his career with 2053 points, the school's best ever.

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1973-74	11	3	2	8	8

Daryle L. Charles

Freshman 18 6-0 160 Guard
Jersey City, N.J.

Daryle averaged 17.0 ppg. and 9.0 rpg. with an impressive seven assists per contest as St. Anthony's (coach Bob Hurley) rolled to a 30-0 slate and a second consecutive New Jersey Parochial C title.

A persistent defender, Daryle compliments his game with torrid outside marksmanship and flashy passes. He was the MVP guard in the 1974 Bridgeport, Connecticut All Star contest in which New Jersey upset New York City. His court credentials make him a very positive backcourt addition to the '74-75 Explorers.

Glenn N. Collier

Junior 20 6-2 150 Guard
Philadelphia, Pa.

Glenn became a starter in the Explorers' eighth game of 1973-74, and the quick and aggressive guard went on to record a fine rookie campaign, contributing 7.3 ppg., 97 assists and a solid 52.2% (94-180) shooting mark from the floor.

A creative passer who makes things happen, Glenn's top career game was vs. Lafayette when he scored 18 points, grabbed seven rebounds, and passed off for 11 assists.

As a freshman, Glenn had led the sub-varsity point producers with 15.9 ppg. Previously, he enjoyed an outstanding scholastic basketball tenure at West Catholic high, earning All Catholic honors (coach Bill Hoy).

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1973-74	28	94	16	60	204

John J. Connors

Junior 21 6-3 190 Forward
Drexel Hill, Pa.

A durable, physical swingman, John was a member of La Salle's best-ever '71-72 freshman squad (20-3), and in 1972-73 he started at a forward spot for the Sub-Varsity averaging 12.7 ppg.

John's credits also include two years as a frontline varsity golfer for the Explorers. A year ago, he worked full-time in business as part of La Salle's cooperative education program.

John was a standout scholastic court performer for coach Jim Purcell at Cardinal O'Hara high, and his dad Mr. Jack Connors, is an assistant professor of sociology at the college

*Varick F. Cutler

Junior 21 6-8 200 Forward
North Tonawanda, N.Y.

Varick hopefully will be fully recovered from a 1973 knee operation which limited his effectiveness last season. The powerful forward averaged 1.3 ppg. and 1.4 rpg. in nine varsity appearances getting a career-high four points and four rebounds vs. Biscayne. He also played on the Explorer sub-varsity leading the team in scoring (22.3 ppg.) and rebounding (9.7 rpg.).

A tough outside shooter, Varick transferred to La Salle from the University of Maryland after averaging 15.2 ppg. and 8.4 rpg. for an outstanding 1971-72 Terp frosh squad.

The former high school All American had a brilliant career at North Tonawanda high (coach Ted More).

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1973-74	9	5	2	13	12

Gregg D. Metzinger

Freshman 18 6-5 200 Forward
Barrington, N.J.

This All South Jersey frontcourter rolled up exceptional stats of 22.0 ppg. and 12.0 rpg. at Paul VI high in Haddon Township, N.J. (coach Art DiPatri) during '73-74.

A deadly streak shooter, Gregg is a confident hustler who is deceptively strong. In last year's New Jersey Parochial State Tourney, he bombed in 44 points vs. the Christian Brothers' Academy.

His great hunger and desire for the game should guarantee his development into a first class collegiate swingman.

Joseph A. Mihalich

Freshman 18 6-0 165 Guard
Philadelphia, Pa.

A typical 'Philadelphia' guard, Joe is a fundamentally sound backcourt ace, who complements his overall game with relentless defense. With varsity exposure, Joe could develop into a real plus for the Explorers. He played his high school B-Ball at La Salle under coach Mike Osborne, and earned All-Catholic honors in 1974. His father, Dr. Joseph Mihalich, is a Philosophy professor at the college.

Donn K. Wilber

Sophomore 19 6-10 200 Center
Radnor, Pa.

Donn averaged 2.6 ppg. and 1.1 rpg. in seven varsity games as a frontcourt reserve, registering a career-best nine points and five rebounds vs. Villanova. A defensive intimidator, he also managed 11.7 ppg. and 7.8 rpg. for the La Salle sub-varsity. Donn has the size and agility to become a front-court fixture for the Explorers in years to come.

A better than average scholastic high jumper, he played his high school basketball at Upper Merion (coach Al Cornish).

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1973-74	7	6	6	8	18

Charles E. Wise

Junior 20 6-0 155 Guard
Cape May, N.J.

The perfect combination of playmaker and scorer, 'Sweet Charlie' led the '73-74 Explorers in assists (110) and averaged 11.9 ppg. on 51.2% accuracy from the field.

Charlie hit a career-high 19 points vs. Pennsylvania, Western Kentucky, Stanford and Delaware last year. He also set personal bests of eight assists vs. Holy Cross and Lafayette, and six rebounds vs. Manhattan.

The Big Five's premier defensive wizard, Charlie's numerous steals over the past two seasons have created many La Salle baskets.

A former football standout at Lower Cape May Regional high, Charlie also was an All South Jersey basketball sensation (coach George Holden).

Year	Games	Field Goals	Foul Goals	Rebounds	Points
1972-73	14	40	19	36	99
1973-74	28	148	39	80	335

James D. Wolkiewicz

Freshman 18 6-6 185 Forward
Philadelphia, Pa.

Jim seldom got headline coverage at North Catholic high (coach Tony Costantino) but the tenacious frontcourter has been a complete player doing many things well on the court.

Consistent off the boards, Jim battled underneath for 16.0 ppg. and 18.0 rpg. as a senior in '73-74.

With the ability to make the big play under pressure and perform well in the clutch, Jim seems destined for success.

20. DREXEL UNIVERSITY

Wednesday, February 5, 1975, 8:00 P.M., at the Drexel Physical Education-Athletic Center, Philadelphia, Pa.

SERIES RECORD:

La Salle 5, Drexel 1

OUTLOOK: Dragons can breathe fire on the front-line with capable returnees 6-5 junior Doug Romanczuk (9.3 ppg.-7.9 rpg.), 6-6 junior Mike Kernan (9.1 ppg.) and 6-4 senior Terry Parks (7.6 ppg.-6.4 rpg.). In addition, seniors 6-6 Doug White and 6-4 Tim Corlies should be recovered from injuries which hampered their play a year ago. 6-3 senior Mike Feagans (9.2 ppg.) will adequately fill one guard position but the other startingslot is a question mark. Lacking the 'big center' but with enough veteran strength to turn the corner.

OUTLOOK: A definite rebuilding prospectus for the Owls with senior co-captains 6-1 Kevin Washington (7.3 ppg.), the only holdover starter, and 6-7 George Bower (2.0 ppg.) in the leadership roles. Some September games in France this past fall should help! So will two frosh recruits, 6-7 Marvin Brown and 6-4 Tim Claxton, former Philadelphia scholastic standouts who might be starters. SERIES RECORD:

La Salle 8, American 2

OUTLOOK: The loss of four graduated starters is soothed somewhat by the return of 6-7 senior Wilbur Thomas (18.3 ppg.-10.4 rpg.). Best bets to crack into the frontcourt lineup are 6-7 senior Bill Mann (4.4 ppg.), 6-5 soph Calvin Brown (5.0 ppg.) and 6-6 transfer Ricky Hunt. Sophs 6-0 Dante Fulton (20.6 ppg.-JV) and 6-5 Cleo Wright (19.8 ppg.-JV) could be the starting guards, but frosh newcomers 6-1 Howie Kane and 6-0 Donald Kelly figure to challenge. Rebuilding, but using top-notch young talent to do it.

6-7 All-American Ken Durrett (no. 33) lefthands two of his 45 points which sparked La Salle's 91-76 rout of Western Kentucky and set new Palestra and Explorers' standards during the 1970-71 campaign. Durrett, MAC and Big Five MVP, finished his career with 1679 points, second highest total in La Salle history. Ken's career per-game average of 23.6 is the school's best ever.

THE EXPLORERS' 1973-74 SEASON IN REVIEW

This season was a mixture of joy and frustration. I know, however, that we gave every effort. Our goals for the future are filled with great hope and determination.

(Paul Westhead, La Salle Basketball Coach)

La Salle basketball continued an upward trend in 1973-74. Coach Paul Westhead's Explorer squad had a good year! They missed having a 'very good year' by the narrowest of margins.

This past season La Salle registered 18 victories, a win-total topped by only three other Explorer teams in the past 15 years.

La Salle's ultimate quest for the Middle Atlantic Conference title fell short by only five points, a 76-71 loss to St. Joseph's. They missed the coveted Big Five championship by four points, an 84-82 defeat by Penn, and a 75-73 loss to St. Joe's. The Explorers lost at Western Kentucky and Duquesne, but so did Providence, the East's best team.

La Salle did finish a strong third in both New York's ECAC Holiday Festival and St. Petersburg, Florida's Big Sun Invitational.

A sampling of their '73-74 victims is impressive! Rutgers, Stanford, Princeton, Western Kentucky, Niagara, Holy Cross, American, Temple and Villanova were each defeated by the Explorers.

And in the process, La Salle's Bill Taylor emerged as one of the East's premiere players. The 6-5 junior from Tuskegee, Alabama, notched 551 points this year, the eighth best single season-total in Explorer history.

Taylor's 19.7 ppg. scoring average was the highest in both the MAC and the Big Five. 'B.T.' was over 20 points on 11 different occasions, highlighted by a 39 point explosion vs. American University, when he canned 18 of 22 field goal attempts.

In other outstanding efforts, Taylor scored 28 points vs. St. Joseph's and Lafayette, 27 points vs. Wake Forest, 26 points vs. Holy Cross, and 25 points vs. Notre Dame and Princeton.

The debut of Philadelphia's 6-10 soph Joe Bryant proved to be almost as explosive. 'J.B.' scored 486 points and pulled down 282 rebounds in a rookie performance topped by only one previous La Salle player (Tom Gola had 504 points and 497 rebounds as a frosh in '51-52).

Bryant's 18.7 ppg. gave him second place in the Big Five and MAC scoring races, and his 10.8 rpg. showing off the boards led the Big Five and was the MAC's second-best.

Joe's high '73-74 outputs were 37 points against Rider and 17 rebounds against Delaware in the MAC playoffs.

Joining Taylor and Bryant on the frontline was 6-6 senior Joe DiCocco, a hard-nosed boardman from Upper Darby, Pa., who started all 78 games in his varsity career. Joe's three year totals of 847 points and 741 rebounds attest to his steady and solid play. For '73-74, he averaged 10.5 ppg. and 9.4 rpg., with best efforts of 21 points vs. Stanford, and 16 rebounds vs. Syracuse.

The Explorer backcourt featured all kinds of depth. While sophomores Glenn Collier and Charlie Wise got the starting nods, seniors Steve Baruffi and Frank Moffatt saw plenty of action.

The 6-2 Collier from Philadelphia emerged as a smooth playmaker with a soft touch, averaging 7.3 ppg., passing off for 97 assists and hitting a career-high 18 points vs. Lafayette.

Known for his defensive prowess, 6-0 'Sweet Charlie' Wise from Cape May, New Jersey, was the eighth best scorer in the Big Five with 11.9 ppg., and finished second in assists with 110. Wise got a career-high 19 points vs. Stanford, Western Kentucky and Delaware.

Baruffi, a 6-1 flash from Vineland, New Jersey, proved to be a regularly-spectacular sixth man, adding a solid 5.8 ppg. off the bench throughout 1973-74. Called upon to start in the absence of the injured Joe Bryant, Steve burned American University with a first class 20 point outburst.

Moffatt, the 5-10 'mighty mite' from Cherry Hill, New Jersey, was the proof positive that the little man still has a place in collegiate basketball. Frank frequently gave Wise and Collier a breather, running the attack with precision and cleverness, and throwing the key pass. Moffatt averaged 3.1 ppg., topped by 11 points vs. Notre Dame, and fed 48 assists in his spot duty.

And the list of contributors goes on! Seniors Frank 'Cat' Doyle and Joe 'Rabbi' Rapczynski, honored by the Philadelphia sportswriters as La Salle's 'unsung heroes', junior Kevin McBain, sophomore Varick Cutler, and freshmen Donn Wilber and Barry Brodzinski, added time and talent to the success of the Explorer unit.

In summation, 1973-74 La Salle basketball was exciting, competitive and representative! It was not a 'very good year', because the Explorers did not win the NCAA berth! However, it was indeed a good year! La Salle earned and deserved a bid to the National Invitational Tournament.

LA SALLE AND 11 OTHERS DISSOLVE MAC TIES, FORM EAST COAST CONFERENCE

The East Coast Conference, composed of 12 former Middle Atlantic Conference University Division members including La Salle, is in its first year of athletic competition, having begun formal operation July 1, 1974.

The athletic alliance has as charter members American University, Bucknell University, the University of Delaware, Drexel University, Hofstra University, Lafayette College, La Salle College, Lehigh University, Rider College, St. Joseph's College, Temple University, and West Chester State College.

All twelve schools are members of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference (ECAC) and are listed as division one by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). Gettysburg College, also a former member of the MAC's university division, decided against division one status and remained a member of the Middle Atlantic Conference. There will be East and West division competition in all team sports with conference champions moving on to NCAA competition.

East division members include American, Drexel, Hofstra, La Salle, St. Joseph's, and Temple. The West will have Bucknell, Delaware, Lafayette, Lehigh, Rider, and West Chester.

However, since most schedules for the 1974-75 athletic calendar have already been drawn, West Chester will be a member of the East division for one year, before shifting to the West for the 1975-76 school year.

Bucknell Athletic Director Rober A. Latour has been elected president of the new league with La Salle's John J. Conboy serving as vice president, and Rider's John B. Carpenter as secretary-treasurer. Temple's Ernest C. Casale has been chosen league commissioner and Michael Trilling will be the conference publicity director.

THE LA SALLE STORY

Brother Daniel Burke,
F.S.C., Ph.D.
President, La Salle College

La Salle College, now in its 111th year of service to higher education and the Philadelphia Community, was founded March 20, 1863 by the Brothers of the Christian Schools and derives its name from the founder of the Christian Brothers, St. John Baptist de La Salle.

In 1929, having outgrown three previous Philadelphia locations, the campus was moved to its present site at 20th and Olney Avenue in the East Germantown section of the city.

Since 1945, La Salle has experienced dramatic growth. Before the closing days of the war, the college had an enrollment of less than 500 attending classes in plant facilities valued at only $1.5 million. Today, 6300 day and evening division students attend classes on La Salle's 40-acre campus, appraised at $30 million.

Olney Hall, a $4.4 million, 100,000-square-foot complex opened in September, 1971, contains 39 classrooms, 15 student seminar and study rooms, and 107 faculty offices as well as such special-purpose areas as a planetarium, an amphitheatre, language laboratories and audio-visual rooms. It houses the liberal arts area departments of English, Education, History, Languages, Political Science and Sociology.

HAYMAN HALL

Hayman Hall, the college's new $4 million physical recreation center which opened this past September, contains the Joseph Kirk Memorial Natatorium with separate swimming and diving facilities, an underwater observation deck, and seats for 1700 spectators. Three regulation-size basketball courts, a one-twelfth mile indoor suspended track, and areas for fencing, wrestling, squash, handball, gymnastics and general exercise are the other features of the complex.

Ten modern residence halls accommodate 800 out-of-town students. A $2 million, three-story College Union Building, completed in 1959, includes a Little Theatre as well as dining halls, assembly rooms, ball-room and other student facilities.

The $2.5 million Holroyd Science Center, opened in 1960, houses lecture rooms and laboratories for study and research in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Physics and Psychology. The David Leo Lawrence Memorial Library, built in 1952, contains 175,000 volumes and periodical files for some 700 journals, and a library annex in the former Wister Hall gymnasium opened last year, increasing library space by 50%.

The Army ROTC program, initiated in 1950, is available to freshmen, who may apply for ROTC scholarships for advance studies.

La Salle's day and evening divisions offer degree programs in Arts and Sciences and Business Administration. The 350-member faculty is composed of Christian Brothers, priests and lay professors. The college has been co-educational in the evening division since February, 1967 and in its day school since September, 1970.

Students at La Salle come from some 200 public and private schools in 21 States, most of them located in the northeastern part of the United States. Fourteen countries are also represented in the student body. Over 75 per cent of them plan graduate work and about 1,000 degrees are conferred annually on day and evening division seniors. La Salle's alumni totals 16,000 with more than 80 per cent of them still living and working in the tri-state area of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.
